OPERATING WITH RESTRICTIONS

Your business is located in Columbia county, which is in Capital region. Capital is in Phase 4 of reopening.

Your business is currently permitted to operate with restrictions.

Restrictions that are applicable to your industry are as follows:

Pursuant to Executive Order 202.38, religious gatherings of 33% of a house of worship's maximum indoor capacity are permitted, provided that social distancing protocols and cleaning and disinfection protocols required by the Department of Health are adhered to. Any drive-in or remote religious service may continue in excess 33% of maximum capacity so long as there is no in-person contact between participants. Faith leaders should continue to consider and use alternative forms of worship, replacing in-person gatherings with virtual services, such as phone or conference calls, videoconference calls, or online streaming, wherever possible.

In order to operate during the ongoing public health emergency, you must comply with all COVID-19 guidelines specific to your business activities and operations, as well as any additional applicable public health and safety guidance issued by New York State.

Please see below for COVID-19 guidance that may apply to your business activities under this NAICS industry code. You must affirm each guidelines that apply to your business activities and operations. In other words, if a guidance document applicable to your business includes a link to the New York Forward Business

Affirmation Form, then your business must also submit this form to affirm that you have read and understood your obligation to operate in accordance with each set of applicable guidance. In addition to reviewing and, as applicable, affirming guidance for your business, all businesses must also develop a business safety plan. You can find a link to a business safety plan template after you complete your affirmation.
